

Art. 1 – Registration

Are admitted to the Sibillini Bikepacking the people who have accomplished the 18th year of age at the time of enrolment belonging to all nationalities. Each participant in the Sibillini Bikepacking must be enrolled in the MSP (Movimento Sportivo Popolare), promotional agency recognized by CONI, which will provide the compulsory insurance in the interest of the attendee as per DM 03/11/2010. N.B. the cost of registering to the MSP is part of the cost incurred for registering to the Sibillini Bikepacking.

Each attendee must be in possession of a certificate of fitness for sport cycling as per DM 24/04/2013.

Registrations are managed by the ENDU platform and accessible from the portal www.sibillinibikepacking.it

Art. 2 – Departure and route

The departure of the Sibillini Bikepacking 2020 is set for Saturday 22 May 2020 hours 8.00. The path will have a development of about 160 Km, Altitude difference 4,800 m D + approx. It will develop on trails, white roads and paved roads. The temporary track with all the data missing will be made known as soon as available.

About a week before the start, an email will be sent containing the definitive GPX path which will be subjected to variations +/- 5% compared to km and altitude difference declared in the provisional track.

The participant will have to load the track provided on a GPS device and follow it from the start to the end.

Each participant will be provided, before departure, the MSP membership card. You can view the full-length accident policy MSP Italy members

Attendees have to use a tracking system to update their location along the route

Made. This can be done via a SPOT device or alternatively if the does now own it, using the application for Smartphones Neveralone (available on IOS and Android).

Art. 3 – Characteristics of the event – warnings

The Sibillini Bikepacking is an adventure (and can't be considered a race) on trails, white roads and paved roads, so the route will be open to traffic and therefore it will be mandatory for all participants to comply with the Highway Code.

The attendee attests he's aware that the route is not signalled, travels at its own risk and is considered doing a free personal excursion without any more rights than other users of the trails and roads.

He's aware that there is no health care service, food and mechanics provided by the organizers along the trail; there is no recovery service for the withdrawn and there are no research obligations on the part of the organizers of the attendees on the route.

The participant undertakes to communicate its withdrawal to the organizer by sending a message to the telephone numbers indicated in the departure on the Roadbook.

Participation in the Sibillini Bikepacking cycling excursion is always a free choice and for recreational purposes, not for money.

It therefore follows that the ASD Marche Bikepacking organizer is devoid, and in any case raised, from any responsibility connected the Sibillini Bikepacking cycling excursion. It is also devoid of the responsibility of any liability regarding the occurrence of: casualty, loss of path, physical problems, accidents, theft, etc.

It therefore follows that the Sibillini Bikepacking cycling excursion is to be understood as a mere meeting with spontaneous and independent participation of cyclists in free and personal excursion. The participant agrees to respect and keep the crossed places clean: meadows, forests, trails and agricultural properties, and undertakes not to throw along the path the waste products but to throw them in the appropriate collection containers. It is also mandatory to carry a repair kit with you for the perforations and malfunctions.

It is required to the participants a good physical preparation, resistance to prolonged efforts, and above all spirit of adaptation. Time limit to get the finisher's certificate is until 25 May at midnight. Any type of external support is prohibited (only in case of emergency) as well as the use of motored vehicles and changing the route. It requires a good knowledge of the use of GPS and orientation. The trail must be followed in full and without using shortcuts. If you wander from it you will have to restart from where you left it.

Art. 4 – Control

There may be check points to verify that the participant has not made any cuts.

Once finished the Sibillini Bikepacking each participant have to send an email to marche.bikepacking@gmail.com with the GPS track of the route carried out no later than 30 June 2020 to allow the organisation to proceed with the verification and then enter the participant in the Finisher list.

Art. 5 – Compulsory Kit

For your own personal safety, in case of emergency or loss of the route, each participant is obliged to carry with him, for the duration of your adventure, the following minimum safety equipment:

- Retro-reflective vest for the night cycling
- Whistle or bell
- Mobile phone
- Approved helmet to always wear
- White front light and red rear lights

Art. 6 – Warnings

Sibillini Bikepacking 2020 will kick off with any weather condition. No refund is foreseen in case of deserting the event.

Art. 7 – Final rule

By asking to participate in the Sibillini Bikepacking each participant:

- Declares that it has read and approved this regulation and accepts its all parts;
- Declares to have taken cognition that the event is a non-competitive test of endurance and considerable physical and psychophysical commitment and without rankings;
- Claims to be aware that, since most of the track is off-road, some stretches can be bumpy and require a good cycling technique, where it is necessary the participant will overcome the difficult tract in his own judgement by descending the bicycle and proceeding on foot;
- Declares to have experience in GPS navigation in off-road and/or otherwise untracked routes;
- Declares to have experience and to be aware that the track is not marked, is not monitored and there are no stations of safety and/or rescue personnel along the route;
- Declares to have experience and be aware of the possibility of encountering adverse weather conditions and to be able to orient yourself and ride in the hills in such conditions;
- Declares to be physically prepared to face many hours riding a bike without stopping and in complete self-sufficiency;
- Declares that you do not use doping or drugs or medicinal substances that may impair performance or involve situations of damage or danger to themselves or others;
- Declares to have all the necessary materials to take part in adventures such as this and to travel independently the track prepared by the organization;
- Declares to be aware that unforeseen events can occur along the way such as landslides, sun, wind, rain, hail, lightning, cold, night, darkness, fog, snow, ice, rock slides, encounters with unattended and/or wild animals, falls, accidental clashes with other participants or with people passing by and/or with motor vehicles in the road sections and claiming to be adequately prepared to face emergency situations;
- Declares that its material is in excellent condition and ready to be used in a trail such as that one presented.
- It is the guarantor of its behaviour during and after the event;
- Declares that the aptitude medical certificate for cycling practice complies with DM 18/02/1982 and DM 26/04/2013 issued by a Sports Medical Centre or by a physician;
- Declares to be in good physical condition and has undergone a medical aptitude examination for the practice of competitive cycling or tourism, providing the organization with the widest waiver for any damage it may incur as a result of its attendance at the event;
- Participation in the event involves the processing of the personal data of the participants for the purposes and with the modalities described in the organizer's privacy policy. The owner of the treatment is the organizer. By registering to the event, the participant confirms to have read the organizer's privacy policy carefully.

- Grants the organizers the widest consent to use, in the manner permitted by law, even for profit, of every image, video, photo etc. taken in the days of the event, providing the organization faculty of transfer to third parties of such images from the moment of registration;
- Expressly authorizes the organisation, in a free way, to use images and video, portraying its person, taken at the occasion of the event, in every day of its duration. This authorisation to use the its image must be provided indefinitely and without territorial limits throughout the world, for use in various publications and films, including, but not limited to, promotional and/or advertising materials made on all media. The organisation may also give to third parties and their institutional and commercial partners the rights to use provided for in this agreement. The organization declines all responsibility for itself and its collaborators, for accidents or damages to persons or things, which should occur before, during and after the event or as a result thereof. It also reserves to exclude from the event cyclists who will have an incorrect behaviour before, during and after the same.